

Discussion Questions:

1. (Option A) Share a time someone gave you a special gift, but you had to share it with someone else even though you didn't want to. (Option B) Who is the most generous person you know? Why do you consider that person to be generous?
2. Have you ever said, "If I have a little more, then I'll be happy"? If so, did you feel happy with more or were you wishing you had even more?
3. Read James 1:17. Have you ever thought that everything we have is a gift from God? How does that perspective change your view or value of what you have?
4. Read Genesis 1:28.
  - a. What did God command mankind to do?
5. Read Genesis 11:3-6.
  - a. Why did the people want to build a city (or tower) that reached the heavens?
  - b. Why were they concerned about being scattered?
  - c. How did this go against God's commands in Genesis 1:28?

Next Steps:

- Where do you spend the majority of your time?
- Where and how do you leverage your talents?
- How willing are you to give your money (treasure) away?
