Discussion Questions:

1. What is one thing you have some or a lot of knowledge about but have never actually experienced it?
2. Why do you think it is easier to gain knowledge about something but never live it out?
3. Read Luke 10:25-37.
 - a. Why is it important to know the reason the “expert of the law” in v. 25 stood up?
 - b. Why did Jesus respond with a question instead of giving an answer?
 - c. Why did the “expert of the law” ask Jesus to define “who is my neighbor”?
 - d. How do you think the Priests and Levites listening to Jesus’ story might have felt based on the characters in the story?
4. Does following Jesus require action?
5. Is there someone who you might need to show mercy to? If so, what does love require of you?

Community Group Challenge:

- Sign up for the devotional.
- Write down one “neighbor” that you will begin praying for and looking for opportunities to share your story with them.
- What are ways you can show mercy to someone this week?
- Hold each other accountable!
